THE ATHENS SCHOOL

OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CHATTANOOGA

D. A. Bolton
1917

One of the best fitting schools in the South.

Strong faculty, carefully assembled from best universities.

Wooded campus of 20 acres.

Eight buildings, well equipped.

Located in unusually well governed small city where temptations are reduced to minimum.

Personal attention of executives and teachers.

The school spirit as manifested in social, athletic, literary, and religious activities could hardly be finer.

Buildings well provided with steam heat, electric lights, running water.

System of modern dormitories for both boys and girls.

Good library and well equipped laboratory.

All forms of athletics. Especially strong teams in football, basketball, baseball.

Thorough instruction in courses preparatory to college entrance. Also first two years of college work. Music, Art, Agriculture and Teacher Training courses.

Institution frankly and earnestly Christian.
